Dear James,

I wanted to write you for some time so here it is!! I wish to thank you and all the teachers before you in the lineage for passing on the lessons of Vedanta.

As I told you in Amstelveen, my first reaction to finding you online was: Finally, finally, finally!

I could not imagine that this jewel would come my way and I feel deeply grateful, not only to the masters, but to Ishwara, life itself and all beauty and truth.

The jiva here still has to unravel some of its vasana's, yet I trust this will be done, sooner or later.

Since October last year, there has not been a day that I did not hear your voice teaching. And I cannot get enough... Slowly a great change is unfolding; it all dissolves in gratitude. So thank you and thank you again and again!

James: It was lovely to meet you, Jan! Appreciation is much appreciated... the tradition thanks you and I thank you... but you have to thank yourself for sticking to the spiritual path and recognizing the value of Vedanta. You can totally relax now because once you are on the Vedanta bus everything that needs to be done will be done, such is the mercy of Isvara.

Much love,

James
