Seeker: Hi, James. I just wanted to send along a note of thanks to you and the ShiningWorld community. I've been absorbing Vedanta as taught by you for the last year and feel incredibly lucky to have come across someone who is able to articulate the Vedanta teachings in an intelligent and humorous manner.

I had been focused on the teachings of Adyashanti for at least five years, and while I appreciate his teaching, I still had nagging doubts and energy still engaged in the spiritual search.

I'm so thankful that that intense seeking has come to its conclusion due to you and ShiningWorld. I still love to read your book although it is tattered, dog-eared and marked up from notes and I look forward to when you post new email satsangs when you get the chance.

I understand why there is an increasing interest in what you're providing, as these teachings are the clearest ones I've ever come across in my many years of seeking, reading and searching.

I trust the ShiningWorld community will continue to spread the Vedanta message to hungry Western spiritual seekers and I am glad to hear that you're finding good people to help spread the workload.

I wish you, Sundari and the whole ShiningWorld community all the best, and know these teachings are changing, influencing and setting free probably more people than you know...

With much love, gratitude, and appreciation...
