Seeker: Hi, James, I was just watching your videos on YouTube today and I thought I haven't talked to you in ages!!

I am now in touch with Paul Hardman, one of your self-realized students. We speak every Sunday through Skype, and he's always available to answer my questions by email as well. He has been great, and I am so grateful that you put me in touch with him.

I am still on this path, and I just can't get enough. What a beautiful teaching. I am finally getting to really know myself.

I hear your talks every day and read your book, also every day. Slowly, slowly, and with Paul's help I am finally understanding what it means that I am awareness.

I hope you're doing well. Thank you for everything, with all my love.
