Chandra: Dear Ram, this time the Lord is speaking through you to confirm the enlightenment for seekers of Truth who are in the final lap of their search! The moment they meet you their search seems to stop or at least they come to know that there is a stop to the search! The voice of Vedanta coming through a Western mind seems much simpler. Of course you have had your training in samadhi, Vedanta vichara and as a pre-requisite you had realised the emptiness of world experience very early in your life. Still, it is really clear and authentic. You seem to be the self in form come to claim the self of all those (which is your self) who have made the required scission with the ignorant mind and its thoughts. Most of the current Neo teachings perhaps talk about the disidentification. But they are not identifying or demarcating the self clearly and thereby putting a stop to the search of the groping mind! Or to put it other way, you seem to bodily lift the people of Earth who are thinking they are bound by gravity of ignorance and then put them on Moon where they seem to float in self and be free of the pull of ignorance! I can go on and on. Can the tsunami of thoughts/desires do anything to the Great Wall of China (which is the self)?
