From the tiniest (unperceivable) object to the largest planets, solar systems and beyond - EVERYTHING is an object. There is NO THING that is not an object, and all of it is manifested and illumined by ME and known to ME, awareness, because I can perceive it.

The “range” is staggering and yet it barely begins to demonstrate the scope of things. It can't, because it goes on forever in both directions (small and big). Body-mind, thoughts, feelings, emotions, sensations, experiences, etc. - these are all objects, all known to me.
